Music Festival Planned For Early Spring

No definite date set; expect large entry from district.

A second meeting of the committee in charge of discussing and making plans for the staging of a music festival in Bassano was held last week-end, and further progress made in preliminary arrangements. It was definitely decided that a festival should be staged, and it is expected that an early spring date will be set in the near future.

The last Musical Festival, held in Bassano about four years ago, proved a real success. Entries from all parts of the district took part, as well as entries from several distant points. It is expected that in the coming festival, an entry of an equal or larger number will be recorded.

Plans include the use of both the Masonic and I.O.O.F. Halls, where the various numbers on the program will be contested and judged by competent judges. At present a full program has not been completed, although the committee have been on this for a number of days. Programs will include the various districts early in February if possible. Further details of the program, and regulations regarding entries will be published at a later date, when final preparations have been completed.

PLAN BIG HIGHWAY PROGRAM FOR 1939

Alberta is to experience the greatest amount of road progress this year ever seen in the history of this province, according to a recent statement by Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works.

While the annual expenditure of this department will not be known until passed by the provincial legislature at the session which opens on Feb. 9, it is believed that there will be large votes for road improvements this year. The department is planning ahead with its "black-top" or hard surfacing of main highways and plans to complete an extensive mileage this year. This program will include surfacing of the 65 mile stretch between Red Deer and Crossfield, which was reconstructed last year at an estimated cost of $550,000. When this task is completed, there will be a hard surfaced main highway from Edmonton to the international boundary. This year's program also is to include surfacing of the Jasper highway, on which reconstruction was begun in the fall of 1938.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association have been assured by the Minister of Public Works that it is his firm intention to undertake extensive road work this year.

In addition, the province is negotiating with Ottawa over a joint scheme to build a main road from Port Vermilion to Ray River on Great Slave lake, at an estimated cost of $200,000 to serve the Yellowknife mining field.

LOCAL HOCKEY TEAM DOWNS INDIANS IN LEAGUE FIXTURE

Playing before a capacity crowd on Wednesday night the Bassano Bearcats blanked the Old Sun Grade 2-0 in their second encounter in regular low valley games. This win should almost assure the Bearcats a play-off berth in the league.

Displaying a good father of Hockey both teams gave a good account of themselves. Better competition than the last time.

The Marquand brothers, Cador and Douglas gave the locals the edge on play. The locals played up several scoring chances when they were possibly a little too over anxious around the net.

At the five minute mark in the first period Cador put the locals on top when he let go from the blue line that the Old Sun goalies was unable to handle.

The locals were unable to strike. The Bearcats were unable to strike. The Bearcats were unable to strike.

Lumber Yard to Open in Bassano

J. A. Harris Proprietor Large Stock of Supplies Now on Hand.

Appearing elsewhere in this issue is an announcement, made by Mr. J. A. Harris Imperial Oil Agent of Bassano, that he is opening a lumber yard and will be prepared to supply all building requirements in the near future.

Mr. Harris has purchased the west shed on the site of the Crown Lumber Co., where he will store his supplies, and open an office. All lumber kept on hand in the new yard will be of the finest grade, and prices will be exceedingly reasonable. Already Mr. Harris has a large quantity of lumber and building supplies on hand and he expects to receive a carload shipment on the 23rd of this month, to increase his stock to a point where he will be able to supply any requirement of the town.

News of the opening of the new yard will be warmly received by citizens of Bassano. Since the Crown Lumber closed the yard some five months ago, it has been necessary to order lumber and supplies in any large quantity from either the Brooks or Gleichen yards, adding to the expense of the material, and causing considerable delay in receiving shipment. Mr. Harris reports that he will deliver any lumber immediately upon receiving it.

For the present at least, Mr. Harris will not stock fire-wood or coal.

Read it carefully, and if there is any point that you do not understand, attend the meeting on Friday night, and the local authorities will be only too willing to explain it to you.

The party and cards were enjoyed till midnight when a bountiful lunch was served. The young couple will reside in this community. MOTORISTS WARNED ON CONDITIONS OF STREETS

Local motorists might be warned at this time on the slippery condition of streets in the town. Bright sunlight throughout the daytime causes the streets to become very slippery at night-time, when the temperature drops, and slushy patches on the roads turn into ice. For on numerous occasions at night during the past week has made, visibility poor, and at least one near car accident is reported, while several others report close calls. Drive slowly and carefully, and keep an eye open for cars at intersections.

E.D. ELEVATOR MEN MAY JOIN ALBERTA UNION

Office full of Agents in Province Already Members. Call Meeting.

Grain elevator agents in the E.I.D. may organize in conjunction with a province-wide union formed last fall, following a meeting held at Arrowwood on Monday evening.

The provincial organization known as the Grain Elevator Union has as its chief aim the elimination of harden placed on the shoulders of agents through practice of collections by means of elevator grain orders. Each fall every grain-buyer must attend to collection of scores, even hundreds, of orders for retail merchants, the government, machine dealers and others. No recompense is obtained other than the grain companies or their agents.

Another object of the union is to provide a fund for insurance and old pension. There are 1700 agents in the province and about 1500 have already joined the movement, so they hope to make some progress in their aims.

Annual 'Spell' To Be Staged Next Week

The weather favors successful 'Spell'. Expect large entry of risks.

Dates for the Annual Open Bonspiel in Bassano have been set for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, January 25, 26 and 27.

The Annual affair in the local rink has in the past proved to be one of the most successful and enjoyable Bonspels held in the southern part of the province, and a number of risks from outside points have always attended. Last year risks from Calgary took part, and reported a very enjoyable session on the ice. With the fine weather conditions at present, and the condition of the roads favorable, 'everything' points to the most successful 'spell' ever to be staged in Bassano.

The executive of the local club are acting Bonspiel Committee, and are sparing neither time nor effort in making all arrangements, and drawing up a splendid prize list. As in past years, there will be three events, with prizes going to the top risks in each event. At present a complete list of prizes are not available, but these will be published in the next issue. Prizes will be dispensed in the window of Stiles Bros. next week. As in the past, prizes are being generously donated by local merchants, and by outside business firms.

Ships wishing to enter risks in the Bonspiel are requested to submit their entry to the secretary of the local club as early as possible. This will assist in making up the first draw, and in completing other arrangements that are necessary in a successful 'spell'. Outside risks are cordially invited to take part, and will find a warm welcome waiting them in Bassano. Entries from outside points should also reach the secretary as early as date as possible.

A complete list of risks taking part will be published in the next issue, and will be the standing of each at the time the Recorder goes to press.

LADIES' AID HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Knox Presbyterian Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Morrison on Thursday, last January 19th. Mrs. E. Moore occupied the chair.

The treasurer gave her report for the year, showing receipts of $12,113 and expenditures of $14,857. Balance on hand at the beginning of the 1939 term is $163.58.

The president and members expressed pleasure over the success of their efforts for the year, which was due not only to the untiring support of the members, but also to the generous support of the community as a whole. At the election of officers for the ensuing year, Mrs. P. Maurer was elected President, Mrs. J. Johnston Vice-President, Mrs. G. Morrison Secretary, and Mrs. B. Plummer Treasurer.

A Valentine Tea was planned for Feb. 14, in the basement of the church. Keep the date in mind, and watch for further announcements.

EDITORIAL BRIEVES

An increased volume of advertising at the last moment makes it necessary for us to change the set-up of the Recorder considerably this week. However, we hope readers will abide with us until next week when the usual editorial column will appear on this page.

Complaints are still being voiced by the management of the local skating rink that too few adults are participating in the entertainment offered at the rink. A smooth sheet of ice, warm and spacious waiting rooms, and good music to skate to are apparently not sufficient to draw the adult population out on these fine evenings for an hour or so of skating.

The local ski company may well express thanks to Mr. E. L. Gray and the E.L.D. officials, who it is understood, have decided to leave the east wall of one of the about the old lumber yard standing. This wall has formed a part of the skating rink and has been an excellent protection to the rink from the west against winds, snow drift, etc. To replace this wall would have meant considerable expense to the ski company, and the final results may not have been as satisfactory as they are at present.

While on the topic of the skating rink, may we remind readers that the local hockey club is displaying real class this winter. To date they have only lost one game, this at the hands of a powerful aggregation from Glenora. In a return game, on local ice, these same two teams battled to a draw. With the formation of the Bow Valley League, hockey fans are assured of witnessing many closely contested games right here in Bassano before the winter is over. Support at the local games is not quite what it should be. Have local enthusiasts of past years lost interest in Canada's National Winter pastime? We'll wager that before the toils have played a couple of more games in Bassano local fans will begin to display some of the old spirit of sportsmanship.

This winter the weatherman is refereeing a boxing bout between "Warm Weather" and "Cold Weather." While "Warm Weather" has a decided edge on the rounds to date, perhaps "Cold Weather" is holding his best punches until ground day.

At a meeting held at Duchesne on Tuesday afternoon Mr. E. L. Gray, manager of the Bassano Irrigation District, announced that water rates would be reduced for the 1950 crop year from $1.75 to $1.60. This reduction, amounting to approximately 8 per cent, is a saving of about $1.00 to water users, and it will be especially welcome coming at this time for the past year has been a difficult one for irrigators. While good production on an irrigated farm is fairly certain the expenses are heavy and when the price of all farm produce drops to the level prevailing at present it is very difficult for many to make both ends meet.

The reduction in the water rates amounts to $24.00 a quarter section and while that is not a great deal it is a step in the right direction and will make the farmers realize that the management and directorate of the district are trying to make the burden of water payments as light as possible.

A glance at the volume of this issue (under the mast head on page one) shows that the Recorder celebrates its second birthday this week. It is just two years ago that the first issue of the Bassano Recorder rolled off the press and with this issue the first year of paper commences its third year of publication. While the weekly newspaper is less impressive than the larger dailies, nevertheless, it has become a more important part in the life of the small community. It is there that the people learn of the comings and goings of their friends, their joys and sorrows, and of their successes and their disappointments. The small weekly is the first to come forward in support of those projects which will benefit the community, and it gives loyal support to all church affairs, club meetings and all other forms of community work.

In the past the Recorder has tried to carry reports of all district and

ALBERTANS MUST UNITE

SAYS McFARLAND

HIGH RIVER, Jan. 12.—Albertans must unite on general principles and realities. They should, in tribute to one of the finest provinces in the Dominion, select and elect people who will see that sound government is introduced. This was the statement of John T. McFarland, chairman of the United States Council of Alberta at a meeting held here today under auspices of the Okotoks-High River Convention of the United States Council of Alberta.

Other speakers included F. S. Grisdale, Olds, who deplored the lack of strength and straight dealing on the part of the present government and made a plea for higher ideals in provincial affairs, and T. McIntyre, High River farmer, who renewed the organization effected in this constituency for the nomination of a non-party candidate at the next general provincial election. There are two methods of assuring the return of the present administration at Edmonton, Mr. McIntyre stated. One is to allow the government to take steps by actual happenings and it solicited the co-operation of its readers to aid in making its columns more interesting to everyone. Just phone 25 the next time you learn of something that your friends would like to read.

As the Bassano Recorder celebrates its second birthday, the publisher wishes to take this opportunity to thank those who have contributed articles in the past and also to the advertisers without whose support it would have been impossible to carry on. Again we say, Thank You.

Wine and women have been the reason for the downfall of many a man, but politics and women seem to be the downfall of so many of our modern day political leaders. And to think of it, in Germany, which Hitler and the Nazi claims is the perfect country, Hitler's right hand man, Joseph Goebbels, Nazi Minister of Propaganda and Enlightenment, is now in prison for mixing up with another man's wife. And is Hitler, who himself seems to be on real friendly terms with Mrs. Goebbels, mad? And to make things more damaging, the pals of Gustav Froelich, the German movie star, with whom wife Goebbels was found, beat up on Goebbels. Looks like both Hitler and Goebbels are on the spot, and their weakness for women will put them in a bad light even with their servile followers.

Public minded citizens in the Town of Bassano should make it a point to be present at the annual meeting of the ratepayers of Bassano, to be held in the Town Hall on Friday evening, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m. It is for your benefit as a taxpayer that the annual meeting is conducted, so why not attend and hear the reports if your town officials?

From time to time we hear a group of citizens arguing about how the town is being run—what is done right and usually a great deal more about what is done wrong. "Why don't they..." is an oft repeated phrase in these discussions but nobody seems to do anything about it. Worse still, nobody even tries to do anything. For years now the Council has called a meeting of taxpayers and, sad to relate, the attendance seldom amounts to more than two or three. If you are a taxpayer you should attend that meeting, that is the place to learn how your town is run and how your money is spent, and it is there that you should air your grievances—not on the street corner.

PROTEST LIVESTOCK MARKING HIGHWAYS

Practice in some parts of the country of allowing livestock to roam the highways has met with strong condemnation on the part of motor organization when discussing this matter at their annual meeting. Some time ago, this matter was the subject when strong representations were made to the government of this province by the Alberta Motor Association. Undoubtedly the improvement in conditions through the enforcement of laws and regulations by municipal and provincial governments is a great extent from the A.M.A. protests.

Publicity Appointments Announced By Gov't.

The appointments of D.E.C. Campbell as director of publicity and the Mackay and Savary Service as advertising agents for the Government of the Province of Alberta have been authorized and the work of reorganizing the Government's publicity activities along new lines is being commenced today.

In making these appointments, the government has taken into consideration the fact that experienced news and publicity men should be employed in order to give newspaper agencies and radio stations the greatest possible assistance in obtaining accurate, authentic information about the Government activities and plans.

In this connection the Government has gone very carefully into the qualifications of those appointed to these positions.

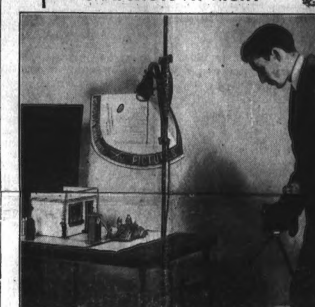

The chairman of the provincial Council devoted the major part of his address to an examination of Canada's place in the world wheat situation. Mr. McFarland made an appeal for reasonable thinking and close co-operation between western provincial and the federal governments in establishing a helpful wheat marketing policy.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SNAPSHOTS AT NIGHT

SNAPSHOTS at night are fun, and a delightful way to spend long winter evenings. Nowadays, with inexpensive lighting equipment especially designed for the amateur, night snapshots are easy with any camera.

You can arrange interesting and artistic "table-top" pictures, using toy automobiles, doll houses and similar miniature, with a bit of dark carpet for grass, or sugar for snow, or a bit of glass on top of a dark surface to portray a quiet pool. You can also take informal portraits of members of the family, pictures of them reading or busy with other activities, snapshots of the pets, and interior views of the home. Indeed, there is a wonderful range of picture chances, none of which occur outdoors.

The picture above shows how night snapshots are made. A photo bulb is screwed into a bridge lamp, with a cardboard reflector replacing the lampshade. The photo bulb yields an extremely bright white light, especially suited for picture taking. With two large photo bulbs in cardboard reflectors, three or four feet from the subject, you have enough light for snapshots with a box camera. With a camera of the type shown you would get satisfactory results by setting the lens aperture at f11 and the shutter speed at 1/25 of a second.

In the picture above here, the light colored wall serves as a reflector to illuminate the shadow side of the "table-top" scene. Ordinarily, two lamps are used for a picture, one to illuminate each side of a subject. By changing the angle and position of the lights, many interesting shadow effects can be obtained. A piece of cardboard can serve as a background as in the picture above. For night snapshots, the camera should be loaded with a fast film of the "super" type. With slower films, it is necessary to provide two or three times as much light. And for close-ups, as shown here, a portrait attachment must be placed on the camera lens (unless yours is one of the faster focusing cameras).

In night picture-taking, it is important to have your photo lights at an exact distance from the subject—not too near, and not too far away. An exposure guide is helpful in placing the lights—or you can make several "test" pictures of each scene.

Don't miss the fun of night snapshots this winter. You will learn much about picture-taking and provide many an interesting addition to your album.

AUDITOR'S SPECIAL REPORT (Sec. 93 (2), The Town & Village Act)

Monies collected on account of Reported School Arrears have been deposited to General account of the Village.

A school Tax Trust Account has now been opened for this purpose.

The estimates were made on the prescribed form and the mill rate was set by resolution, although a by-law setting the rate was also on file. Apparently the reading and passing of the by-law was not properly recorded in the minutes.

The Council passed a resolution allowing a discount on Tax Arrears payments same as if taxes were consolidated. The act does not give this authority.

One member of the council has apparently ceased to hold the qualifications entitling him to hold office on the Council.

M. Murray, Auditor.
